ALPHABET SOUP

A THRIFT STORE BENEFITING PETALUMA EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Enhancing Educational Excellence since 1982!

Over 12,500 students from 33 Petaluma area public, charter and private schools benefit from the programs of PEF which include the funding of Grants, Scholarships and Cultural Enrichment events in art and music. PEF also manages over $3,500,000 in endowment and component funds established through gifts, planned giving and corporate commitments to benefit Petaluma schools.

DONATE TO ALPHABET SOUP

There are many worthwhile, and furniture and other large items which would wonderful reasons to reuse gently worn clothing, books, toys, accessories and household items including the affordability factor for families and individuals otherwise end up in landfill. Alphabet Soup prides itself on being a role-model of sustainable business, not just benefiting the looking to stick to a tighter budget. Yet one of the most significant and sustainable services a thrift store such as Alphabet Soup can offer is the opportunity to regenerate educational community, but the carbon footprint of the city as a whole. Donate to Alphabet Soup and join the growing trend to promote a "greener" Petaluma.
